Scoring Guide for Whining

SCORING GUIDE FOR WHINING

	Purpose	Audience	Quality
5	The target of the whine responds immediately to the full intention of the whine. The whine may have multiple purposes or targets.	There is full audience participation. Your audience extends beyond the boundaries of the vocal whine.	The whine was seemingly endless, possibly carrying on for days. The pitch of the whine oscillated through the entire frequency range, beyond human hearing, causing neighborhood dogs to howl. Full volume, audible over a jet engine at full throttle.
4	The purpose of the whine is clear. There is a clear target of the whine. The goal of the whine is achieved.	Everybody in the area noticed your whine. Many people participated in the whine.	Duration of the whine is enough to anger an audience. Pitch is high, the frequency is a shellboard. Whine is audible over a classroom noise.
3	There is a purpose to the whine. The whine achieves its goal from the target through sympathy, guilt, or frustration.	Most of the people turned to hear your whine. Some people join your whine.	Whine for five seconds or more. The pitch of the whine varies. The whine can be heard over the teacher's voice.
2	There is a purpose to the whine, but it failed to achieve its goal. The whine may exhibit some sympathy for the whiner.	Your whine was noticed by some people. One or two people joined your whine.	The whine is heard but fades out. The pitch is flat and boring.
1	The whine doesn't seem to have a purpose. The whine gets little attention from the target.	If few people joined your whine, but nobody really paid attention to it. Nobody noticed, nobody cared.	The whine is barely audible. The whine is little more than a whisper.
